The courses listed are currently transferable under the 2020-21 MTU course catalog for specific MTU requirements for the B.A. in Communication, Culture, and Media. Students are subject to requirements for the MTU course catalog in effect at the time of his/her/their entry and registration at MTU. Once enrolled at MTU, students maintaining continuous enrollment at Michigan Tech may expect to graduate under the requirements published in the catalog in effect at the time of their matriculation.

This document is specific to Northwestern Michigan College's Visual Communication Program and Michigan Technological University's B.A. in Communication, Culture, and Media. A grade of "C" or higher must be earned in the class at Northwestern Michigan College for transfer credit to be awarded at MTU. A course transferred from Northwestern Michigan College may fulfill only one MTU course requirement. In some instances, a student's course selection may fulfill a different requirement than listed above. In those specific instances, it may be advantageous in the student's course of study to allow the course to fulfill a different requirement rather than a general education or free elective.

Any student interested in or planning to transfer to the MTU CCM program is strongly encouraged to work closely with the MTU Humanities undergraduate advisor as well as their NMC advisor.
