that the employee's signature does not mean agreement to the charges or penalties.

- E. NMC will document a disciplinary process beginning with the first verbal warning (refer to Appendix F). A report of the disciplinary action will be retained in their Personnel file in the Office of Human Resources. Should a challenge arise regarding the disciplinary action in the report, the report may be used in the ensuing grievance proceeding or arbitration.
- F. When imposing any discipline for minor offenses, the Employer shall not consider any minor offenses committed by the employee prior to twelve (12) months of work time from the date of the present offense. (260 work days)
- G. Any discipline not presented for disposition through the discipline steps as set forth in Section 3 of this Article within five (5) working days of the occurrence of the conditions giving rise to the discipline, or within (5) working days of the date it is reasonable to assume that management first became aware of the conditions giving rise to the discipline, shall not thereafter be considered for disciplinary steps as set forth in Section 3 of this Article.

In case of a suspension, the notice and effect may be immediate and without pay for the period involved. In case of a discharge, the notice and effect may be immediate; however, the employee will receive two (2) weeks' pay from the effective date.
- K. The Employer shall have the right to dismiss any employee during his/her probationary period, and neither the employee nor the Union shall have recourse in such case to the grievance procedure.

SECTION 2. Rules and Regulations

- A. Rules and regulations for the conduct of Employees are essential for the well-being of all and the orderly and efficient operation of Northwestern Michigan College. As public servants, NMC employees are expected to fulfill their assignments efficiently, to the best of their ability, and to conduct themselves on NMC time and premises in a manner that promotes the safety and welfare of students, visitors, and all employees, encourages congenial work habits, and

- C. The Union shall have until the effective date to object to the proposed work rule, and in no event shall the effective date be less than ten (10) calendar days after the posting and notification to the Union.
- D. If the Union objects to the proposed work rule, the parties shall meet and attempt to resolve the difference. If the matter is not resolved within an additional ten (10) calendar day period, the rule may be referred to mediation by either party.

SECTION 3. Discipline Steps

- A. An informal coaching note may be used for minor infractions that do not rise to the level of the need for a Corrective Action Plan. This step will not always be a part of the progressive discipline process as outlined below.

- B. Discipline shall consist of four (4) steps but not limited to:

Step 1 - Documented Verbal Warning with Corrective Action Plan

Step 2 - Written Reprimand with Corrective Action Plan

Step 3 - Suspension with acknowledgment of correction with an opportunity to resign.

Step 4 - Discharge

- C. The Documented Verbal Warning (refer to Appendix F) is normally the first indication of a violation that warrants an Action Plan. It consists of a verbal conference with the employee. The employee is permitted to invite a union representative to this meeting.

The Corrective Action Plan will use the form provided by Human Resources and will document the plan for corrective action (Appendix F, Corrective Action Plan section).

- D. The Written Reprimand is a formal notice of violation (refer to Appendix F). It serves as notice that continued infractions will result in more serious discipline. All written warnings will be given to the Employee and filed in their personnel folder. The employee is permitted to invite a union representative to this meeting.
- E. A Suspension is for serious or repeated offenses. An Employee may be suspended without pay. Compensation will not be paid while on suspension unless it is determined that the employee was unfairly suspended. Reasons for their suspension will be documented, given to the employee, and filed in their personnel file. The employee is permitted to invite a union representative to this meeting.

- F. In the case of a discharge there may be exceptions to using this disciplinary procedure where good business practice demands immediate suspension or dismissal of an employee.
- G. In the case of voluntary separation from employment with the College during open disciplinary action, the following will occur:

There will be no adverse employment action taken before the test results are received. Alcohol and drug testing will be conducted whenever there is "reasonable suspicion" of drug or alcohol use.
 - b. It is possible for a test for alcohol or drug use to be conducted after an accident or injury based on management observation and documentation, but only if it is based upon reasonable suspicion, rather than the fact that an accident occurred. Employee Acknowledgment
I understand that NMC is an "at-will" employer, meaning that my employment has no specified term and that the employment relationship may be terminated at any time at the will of either party on notice to the other. I also realize that NMC may opt to provide me with corrective action measures, and can terminate such corrective measures at any time, solely at its own discretion, and that the use of progressive discipline will not change my at-will employment status.
I have received a copy of this notification. It has been discussed with me, and I have been advised to take time to consider it before I sign it. I have freely chosen to agree to it, and I accept full responsibility for my actions. By signing this, I commit to follow the company's standards of performance and conduct
