Your Ticket to an Airline
Career

Bachelor of Business Administration Aviation Management

An exclusive partnership between Northwestern Michigan College and Davenport University awards full transfer credit for coursework from your Associate of Applied Science in Aviation, so you can complete the bachelor's program in about two years. An application has been filed to confirm that this degree meets the FAA requirements for First Officer Qualification, allowing you to become an airline first officer with reduced flying time requirements. Tuition costs are kept in line by taking the maximum number of classes through NMC; you may also be eligible for Davenport grants, scholarships, discounts and Davenport/NMC consortium financial aid.

ADDENDUM
TO
THE ARTICULATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN
NORTHWESTERN MICHIGAN COLLEGE
AND
DAVENPORT UNIVERSITY

1. Northwestern Michigan College and Davenport University will maintain the integrity of their separate programs and enter into this agreement as equal partners.
2. Northwestern Michigan College and Davenport University agree that any student who has completed an associate degree at Northwestern Michigan College may transfer credits toward a bachelor degree program at Davenport University. See the Appendix for articulated programs.
3. Northwestern Michigan College and Davenport University further agree to communicate concerning curriculum changes that affect the agreed-upon relationship between articulated programs and to communicate concerning the development of plans that might lead to further opportunities for program articulation between the two establishments. Responsibility for communication related to this agreement will be given to the Articulation Specialist at Northwestern Michigan College and the Director of Transfer Articulation at Davenport University or their designees.
4. Either party may terminate this agreement, with or without cause, by providing the other party with ninety days (90) prior written notice of termination. Northwestern Michigan College and Davenport University agree that in the event of termination students will be allowed to complete the articulated program in which they are actively pursuing at the time termination notification is provided.
