

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
Kettering University
(Formerly GMI Engineering & Management Institute)

and

Northwestern Michigan College

KETTERING UNIVERSITY and NORTHWESTERN MICHIGAN COLLEGE agree to an academic articulation that includes the areas of computer, electrical, industrial and mechanical engineering; computer science; business management; environmental chemistry; applied mathematics; and applied physics.

This articulation provides students with guidance, including a formal guide sheet for their intended program, which enables them to initiate their college studies at Northwestern Michigan College and complete their Bachelor of Science degree from Kettering University.

This articulation is intended to ensure the smoothest possible transition of the student and the transfer of credits required for the desired baccalaureate degree program at Kettering University. Students will be guaranteed admission to Kettering University if they meet the Kettering admission requirements listed later in this agreement.

This articulation agreement will be reviewed every three years.
