

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
Between
The Robert B. Miller College
And
Northwestern Michigan College

---

THIS ARTICULATION AGREEMENT (hereinafter "Agreement") is entered into by The Robert B. Miller College, a Michigan upper division private institution of higher education, located in Battle Creek, Michigan (hereinafter "Miller College") and Northwestern Michigan College on this 19th day of May, 2010.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Miller College is a private college with its main campus located at the Mawby Center in Battle Creek, Michigan; and,

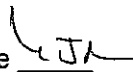

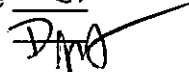

WHEREAS, Northwestern Michigan College is a public community college with its main campus in Traverse City; and,

WHEREAS, Miller College and Northwestern Michigan College desire to collaborate to provide opportunities for continued education to Northwestern Michigan College graduates at Miller College.

AGREEMENT

NOW THEREFORE, the parties, desiring to articulate the nature of their collaboration, hereby agree to the following terms:

1. Northwestern Michigan College students who have earned an associate degree or at least 30 hours of credits (at the 100-400 level) may transfer all earned credits to Miller College. Courses completed on a pass/fail basis will be transferred if a passing grade was earned.
2. Miller College and Northwestern Michigan College establish their own admission requirements and recognize and respect the autonomy of each institution. Although qualified students from Northwestern Michigan College may meet the academic admissions requirements at Miller College, such qualified students may be required to meet additional admission requirements related to GPA and prerequisites to some schools at Miller College.

3. Miller College and Northwestern Michigan College recognize that Miller College may refuse admission to any person who does not meet all admission requirements set forth by Miller College. Miller College does not guarantee admission to specific programs for students who meet the standards of general admission to Miller College.
4. Miller College or Northwestern Michigan College may terminate this Agreement by providing the other party with written notice, by first class mail, of the termination of the Agreement. The Agreement shall terminate not less than one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of the termination notice, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties.
5. This Agreement is intended solely for the mutual benefit of the parties hereto, and there is no intention, express or otherwise, to create any rights or interests for any party or person other than Miller College and Northwestern Michigan College. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no rights are intended to be created for any student, qualified students, as defined here, parent or guardian of any student, or prospective employer of any student.
6. No amendment or modification to this Agreement, including any amendment or modification of this paragraph, shall be effective unless the same is in writing and signed by the party to be charged.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the day and year written in the preamble to this Agreement.
